☐ Sell   ☐ Gift

Vehicles provided as gifts between qualifying family members are not subject to P.S.T. if the Saskatchewan P.S.T. has been paid in full at least once. If they are not tax paid, then tax applies on the Redbook value. Taxable vehicles qualify for a gift exemption providing it’s between first degree relatives and the donor previously had the vehicle registered for at least 30 days. Qualifying family members include spouse, common-law spouse or same-sex partners*, parent, step-parent, child, step-child, brother, sister, step-brother/sister, grandparent, step-grandparent, legal guardian, foster parent, father/mother-in-law, son/daughter-in-law.

*To qualify, common law spouses or same-sex partners must have lived (cohabited) for the preceding two years as partners in common law, or cohabited for at least one year as parents of a child.

• A used vehicle being registered in Saskatchewan for the first time, or a vehicle that has most recently been registered in another jurisdiction, requires a safety inspection. Information can be obtained from your local SGI motor licence issuer.

• A vehicle identification number (VIN)/serial number status check can be requested to determine the vehicle’s eligibility for registration and the previous registration status of the vehicle. Information can be obtained from your local SGI motor licence issuer. There is a fee for this service.

• The prospective purchaser can determine whether P.S.T. is payable by visiting www.sgi.sk.ca, select the on-line services button and then choose vehicle history. In order to perform the search, you will require the vehicle identification number (VIN)/serial number of the vehicle. There is no fee for this service. For more information regarding P.S.T. visit Saskatchewan Finance at www.finance.gov.sk.ca.

• The prospective purchaser can determine whether a vehicle is free of liens and encumbrances in Saskatchewan by contacting Information Services Corporation, Personal Property Registry. In order to perform a search, you will be required to provide the vehicle identification number (VIN)/serial number of the vehicle. A request for a search can be made in person, by phone or in writing or online at www.isc.ca. There is a fee for this service.

• Registration fee and licence plate insurance premium rates can be obtained by contacting a motor licence issuer, or by calling SGI toll free at 1-800-667-9868 or by using the rate calculator on SGI’s website at www.sgi.sk.ca.

• This form is provided as a courtesy by Saskatchewan Government Insurance to ensure sufficient information is contained within the Bill of Sale to permit licensing and registration of the described vehicle by the new owner.

• No liability attaches to the Crown through the use of this document in respect of the sale of this vehicle. Any dispute arising from the sale becomes a civil matter among the parties named on this document.
